Letter to Stato Civile

About this letter: It is addressed to the archivist in the town of particular interest to the researcher. Be advised, these archivists are usually tremendously busy with the day to day operations of the office they are required to run. They are continually servicing the patrons who show up at the desk and have very little extra time to devote to honoring requests for information from abroad. If you do get a reply (usually not very timely for obvious reasons), be thankful for their time and effort--it was above and beyond their normal call of duty. I highly recommend sending NO PAYMENT until/unless they request it. Of all forms of payment, a cashiers check from a bank drafted in EURO is the BEST choice. Please allow a little extra in the amount to offset their cost in cashing it in. Of all forms of payment, a U.S. Postal Money Order is the WORST. It is extremely difficult and time consuming for them to get the money from the USPS. It takes months! They are more likely to give up and forget your request. Again, only send payment when specifically requested by the Stato Civile. With your letter, include a self-addressed, UNSTAMPED envelope. Also, please send ALL of your letters REGISTERED post.

Fill in/select the appropriate information in the spaces below, then click the submit button. The letter will then be translated and shown to you. Be sure to print it or save the page to your computer at that time.

Dear Gentlemen,

My name is [your name will show here], and I live in the United States at the above-stated address. I am searching for information regarding my grandfather, Giuseppe Rosario Ferlita. He was born in the commune of [town name will show here]. I am requesting this information to find out more about my family, and to find my relatives who remained in Italy.

I would be very grateful if you could mail me the birth certificate for [ancestor's name will show here] on non-legal paper. He was born in 1886. He/She married Vincenza Rose Ficarrota in 1920.

I thank you beforehand for your kindness and efficiency, and I ask you to charge me for the postal expenses and for the certificates.

Egregi Signori,

Mi chiamo Kenneth Ferlita, ed abito negli Stati Uniti all'indirizzo sopradetto. Cerco informazioni sul mio nonno, Giuseppe Rosario Ferlita. Nato nel comune di Santo Stefano Quisquina. Cerco questi dati per conoscere meglio la mia famiglia, e per trovare i miei parenti rimasti in Italia.

Vi sarei molto grato se poteste spedirmi l'estratto dell'atto di nascita di Giuseppe Rosario Ferlita, in carta libera. Nato nel 1886. Sposato Vincenza Rose Ficarrota nel 1920.

Vi ringrazio in anticipo per la vostra gentilezza e premura, e vi prego di addebitarmi tutte le spese postali e dei certificati.

Distinti saluti,

Kenneth Ferlita

Dual Citizenship Questionnaire

The National Italian American Foundation (NIAF), in conjunction with the Embassy of Italy, welcomes you to the online Italian Citizenship Questionnaire. As you may have heard, some Italian Americans qualify for Italian Citizenship. It is our hope that this Questionnaire will facilitate your research and pursuit of this exciting possibility, Italian Citizenship.

Some may ask, why pursue Italian Citizenship when United States Citizenship is so coveted? That depends on the individual, but here are some frequently mentioned reasons: Italy is one of the most beautiful and popular countries in the world, it has a lower cost of living than in the United States, business and capital ventures in Italy are facilitated by Italian Citizenship, and visiting, residing, and working in other European Union countries including France, England, Germany, Spain, Greece, Ireland, Sweden, Portugal, Austria, and the Netherlands is greatly facilitated through Italian Citizenship. Also, an Italian passport would allow an individual to travel as an EU citizen if so desired.

Please read the Disclaimer Page very closely. This Italian Citizenship Questionnaire is a FREE resource intended strictly for informational gathering purposes only.

Complete your secure online questionnaire today!

Best Wishes on Your Italian Citizenship Pursuit.

GLOSSARY

ANCESTRY LIBRARY/LEARNING CENTER:

A collection of original articles and tips on almost every genealogy topic including technological advances, hands-on research advice and genealogy news.

ANCESTRY MEMBER TREES (PUBLIC AND PERSONAL):

Members can create and save their personal family trees on Ancestry.com, save in their tree records they find while searching Ancestry.com and even upload photos to their tree. These online trees can be accessed from any computer with Internet access and can have one of two settings: personal or private. In personal trees, names only of deceased individuals can be viewed by other Ancestry members, who can then request permission to see additional information in the tree. In public trees, all information about deceased individuals is viewable by all Ancestry members.

EMIGRANT:

One who leaves a country or region to settle in another area.

FAMILY GROUP SHEET:

A family history form that records information about a couple and their children.

FAMILY TREE (PEDIGREE) CHART:

A register recording a line of ancestors. Typically shows five generations.

GEDCOM:

Acronym for GENEalogical Data COMMunication. The standard file format used by family tree software to facilitate information sharing.

GENERATION:

A single step in the line of descent from an ancestor.

IMMIGRANT:

One who settles in a country after emigrating from another country.

HOME SOURCE:

A source of family history information that can be found in one's home (rather than at libraries or archives) such as letters, Bibles and photographs.

LAND RECORD:

A record showing the buyer and seller of a piece of property.

MEMBER DIRECTORY:

Directory of individuals who have registered their public profile with the Ancestry Community.

MILITARY RECORD:

A record created during an individual's military service that holds information about the individual. Common military records include draft cards and pension applications.

MY ANCESTRY:

Personalized page on Ancestry.com where members can build their online Ancestry Member Tree and save records they find while searching Ancestry.com.

NATURALIZATION RECORD:

An official government record showing when and where an alien became a U.S. citizen.

ONEWORLDTREESM:

A collection of more than 200 million names and 500,000 user-submitted trees, making it the largest family tree in the world. This resource allows members tap into the work other people have done, saving hours of research and connecting them with others who could help in their search.

PROBATE RECORDS:

Court records that deal with the settling of one's estate after death.

SOUNDEX:

Option available on "Exact matches only" searches that allows you to search for all last names that "sound like," but are not necessarily spelled like, the one you're looking for. For example, a Soundex search for "Smith" might bring back records for "Smyth" and "Smithe."

SURNAME, FAMILY OR BIRTH NAME:

Last name at birth.

SOURCE:

A record of an event. An original source is a record that remains in its original form, for example census images. Indexes and databases are examples of derivative sources — those produced from an original source.

VITAL RECORDS:

Civil records of life events (e.g., birth, marriage, death) preserved by an official source (e.g., government or church).
